

TOP REASONS TO BECOME AN OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY OFFICER

STEADY DEMAND ACROSS CANADA

EMPLOYMENT GROWTH FOR OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY OFFICERS IN EVERY PROVINCE

(SOURCE: GOVERNMENT OF CANADA JOB BANK)

MEANINGFUL WORK THAT MAKES A DIFFERENCE

- Inspecting workplaces for safety hazards
- Enforcing worker health and safety rights
- Investigating accidents, safety violations, and complaints
- Developing workplace safety programs
- Delivering health and safety training

MULTIPLE EMPLOYMENT OPTIONS

- Government agencies
- Insurance companies
- Healthcare organizations
- Private businesses

INDUSTRY DRIVEN TRAINING

- 12-month Health & Safety Officer Diploma at Herzing College
- Program approved by the Board of Canadian Registered Safety Professionals (BCRSP)
- Graduates are immediately eligible for CRST (Canadian Registered Safety Technician) certification
- On the job training - internship
- Study on campus or online*

COMPETITIVE SALARIES

TYPICAL STARTING SALARY:

$40,000 PER YEAR

MEDIAN SALARY:

$54,000 PER YEAR

SALARY WITH EXPERIENCE:

$75,000 PER YEAR

(SOURCE: RANDSTAD)

NATIONALLY RECOGNIZED CERTIFICATIONS

Entry-level - Canadian Registered Safety Technician (CRST) Certification

Advanced - Canadian Registered Safety Professional (CRSP) Certification

Visit herzing.ca to learn more or speak with an Admissions Advisor.

*The online program is delivered through our Winnipeg campus.

HERZING
COLLEGE

Career focused • Convenient • Caring