

APPLIANCE SERVICE TECHNICIAN

Appliance Service Technicians repair and service washers, dryers, dishwashers, ranges, built-in ovens, counter cook top units, microwaves, refrigerators, and freezers for appliance sales companies, wholesalers, large apartment owners and smaller independent service companies. Many may go on to become self-employed or work in the commercial restaurant equipment industry. They perform service on products for both in and out of warranty applications.

Students who complete our structured Appliance Service Technician course will receive theory instruction together with the hands-on training methodology taught by highly trained instructors. Areas of study include; appliance service safety, servicing and installation methods, and schematic diagrams and parts look up.

Program length: 24 weeks

▸ ADMISSION REQUIREMENTS

- Minimum of a Canadian high school grade 12 or equivalent, or a mature student
- Pass an entrance test administered by Herzing
- Be interviewed in detail regarding interest in the field
- Meet any additional program specific entrance requirements

APPLIANCE SERVICE TECHNICIAN

▸ COURSE LIST

-
- Appliance Service Safety

---

  - Servicing and Installation Methods

---

  - Schematic Diagrams and Parts Look Up

---

  - Employability Skills

---

▸ CAREER OUTLOOK

Students are employed by appliance sales companies, wholesalers, large apartment owners, smaller independent service companies and may work in the commercial restaurant equipment industry.

Student will have the skills to succeed in the following areas of the industry: Appliance Service Technician, Refrigeration and Air Conditioning, Domestic Appliance Technician, Appliance Maintenance Technician, Appliance Service Contractor, exceptional electrical skills and knowledge. Knowledge working with plugs and switches, install lighting fixtures, roughing in office and commercial, finishing experience and installing service equipment panels, lighting, emergency lighting, drilling holes for wiring. Installing and wiring devices.